

845 N. Jefferson Avenue, Port Allen, LA 70767 ♦ westbatonrougemuseum.com

10:00 a.m.

JUL 18

New Exhibit in the Brick Gallery

“Holding Out and Hanging On: 10 Years After Hurricane Katrina” – Photography by Thomas Neff.

1:00 p.m.

AUG
1

Furling the Flag: The Soldiers Come Home

Short lecture and demonstration from Richard Holloway on the historical process Confederate soldiers went through for reintegration into civilian life after the war. Free.

noon

AUG 6

Lunchtime Lecture – attorney Gary Ethridge

“The 70th Anniversary of the Atomic Bombing of Japan”
The speaker will discuss the two dramatic events and tell the story of Hiroshima survivor, Shigeyoshi Morimoto. Free.

noon

AUG 12

Lunchtime Lecture – Claudia Kheel

“The Art of the Civil War of the South”
The lecture will complement the current exhibit, “When the Cannons Fell Silent.” Free.

noon

AUG 18

Lunchtime Gallery Talk and Book Signing

Thomas Neff will discuss his book, Holding Out and Hanging On, and give a personal account of people he met and their stories which he told through photography. Free.

7:00 p.m.

AUG 20

Discussion and Book Signing

Book Club featured author, Brian Boyles, discusses his book, New Orleans Boom and Blackout which looks at post-Katrina recovery as the city prepared to host Super Bowl XLVII. Free.

1:00 p.m.

AUG 29

New Exhibit in the Whitehead Gallery Kickoff

“House and Home” – a NEH On the Road exhibition
Enjoy a family movie, Mr. Blandings Builds His Dream House along with an exhibit tour. Free.